DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Bruce Harang on 08/10/06.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 5 [~~Cancelled~~ Currently Amended] A printed circuit Bboard according to claim 1, characterized in that said conduits comprise ~~several~~ a plurality of cavities (13) ~~placed~~ all positioned in a direction that is substantially parallel to said electrically insulating layer (11), at least one of the ends of each one of said plurality of cavities (13) opening into ~~an~~ a plurality of corresponding openings (14) located on at least one edge (19) of the metal substrate (10), ~~whose~~ each of said plurality of openings (14) is being coupled with ~~s~~ a span of a pipe(20 17) for said heat-carrying fluid, forming a heat transfer area extending upward into said heat transfer area medium.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1,3,4,5 -11 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance as indicated in the paper mailed 6/14/06: With regards to independent claim 1, Tsuji (US 6158232) discloses a printed circuit board having a metal substrate with an integrated cooling system comprising a metal substrate with a heat transporting cavity and having an opening at one edge with conduit for transporting a heat carrying fluid to the outside of the metal substrate, Tsuji does not disclose that the conduit for a heat-carrying fluid extends, by way of the opening, to the outside and upward from the metal substrate forming a sealed heat transfer area in an external heat transfer medium, as in the claimed invention. Furthermore there is no evidence in the prior art making the combination obvious.

Art Unit: 2841

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
